

Suburban Propane Announces Sponsorship of the New Jersey Devils and Prudential Center's Annual Employee Day of Giving Event in Newark, NJ

A Proud Sponsor for the Annual Toy Drive, in Partnership with The City of Newark and Mayor Ras J. Barakak

WHIPPANY, N.J., Dec. 11, 2019 /PRNewswire/ -- Suburban Propane Partners, LP ("Suburban Propane"), is extremely proud to announce its sponsorship and support for the New Jersey Devils and Prudential Center's Annual Employee Day of Giving. Throughout the holiday season, Suburban Propane has sponsored toy drives at the New Jersey Devils home games as part of their signature SuburbanCares initiative, which prioritizes the company's dedication to giving back to the local communities throughout their 41 state operating territory. Suburban Propane, with its 90-year legacy headquartered in New Jersey, will provide support and volunteers for the event taking place on December 12, 2019 at the John F. Kennedy Recreation Center in Newark, New Jersey.

"The Devils Annual Toy Drive, Presented by Suburban Propane is one of our most cherished and celebrated December traditions; amplified this year by our goal of donating 10,000 toys to Newark youth," said Jeff Scott, Vice President, Community Investment & Grassroots for Prudential Center and New Jersey Devils.

"At Suburban Propane, giving back to our local communities is a cornerstone of our mission. As part of our SuburbanCares initiative, we are excited to be kicking off this holiday season with another time-honored New Jersey establishment, the New Jersey Devils. We are proud to partner with them, and the City of Newark and Mayor Barakak on their 2019 Annual Toy Drive to bring smiles and spread holiday cheer to the children of the Greater Newark area," said Nandini Sankara, Spokesperson, Suburban Propane.
