

Suburban Propane Partners, L.P. Announces COVID-19 Charitable Initiative with Chick-fil-A Cicero

Delivery of 1,250 Meals to Hospital Workers at Crouse Health

WHIPPANY, N.J., April 28, 2020 /PRNewswire/ -- Suburban Propane Partners, L.P. (NYSE: SPH), a nationwide distributor of propane, fuel oil and related products and services, as well as a marketer of natural gas and electricity, today announced a charitable initiative with Chick-fil-A Cicero in the Greater Syracuse, NY area to deliver 1,250 complete meals, enough to feed every healthcare professional in a 24-hour shift at Crouse Health in Syracuse, NY.

On Tuesday, April 28th, Suburban Propane will work directly with Chick-fil-A Cicero to provide 1,250 boxed meals; including a sandwich, bag of chips, and a cookie, to frontline workers at Crouse Health located at 736 Irving Avenue in Syracuse, NY.

"We are excited to join Chick-fil-A Cicero in applauding our healthcare heroes at Crouse Health for leading the charge and saving lives on the frontlines every day. As part of our SuburbanCares corporate pillar, the safety and health of our employees, customers, and local communities is our top priority. New York State is currently the most COVID-19 impacted region in the United States and it is especially important to come together in support of our great healthcare workers and first responders," said Nandini Sankara, Spokesperson for Suburban Propane.

"We are so grateful for the brave and committed people at Crouse during these challenging times," said Jimmer Szatkowski, Chick-fil-A Cicero Owner/Operator. "It is our pleasure to partner with Suburban Propane to provide them with a meal."

"We are pleased and grateful to partner with Suburban Propane and Chick-fil-A to recognize and thank our amazing healthcare team – nurses, doctors and support staff, all of whom have been working tirelessly to keep our patients and our community safe. They are the best," said Kimberly Boynton, President & CEO, Crouse Health.
